

HOW TO TRAIN YOUR DOG

Tested tips from the experts

DO ONE GOAL AT A TIME

Give your dog time to focus

Infographics are visual representations of data, making complex info easier to share and digest. When making your own, simply organize your images, charts, and text. Finally, cite your sources.

COMMUNICATE CLEARLY

Use clear cues and gestures

Infographics are visual representations of data, making complex info easier to share and digest. When making your own, simply organize your images, charts, and text. Finally, cite your sources.

REWARD PROPERLY

Motivate your dog with treats

Infographics are visual representations of data, making complex info easier to share and digest. When making your own, simply organize your images, charts, and text. Finally, cite your sources.

PRACTICE REGULARLY

Repetition is key to success

Infographics are visual representations of data, making complex info easier to share and digest. When making your own, simply organize your images, charts, and text. Finally, cite your sources.

TAKE IT ONE DAY AT A TIME

Give your dog time to rest too

Infographics are visual representations of data, making complex info easier to share and digest. When making your own, simply organize your images, charts, and text. Finally, cite your sources.

